

JOHN PAUL II CENTER
for
INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE

INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE: FROM THE UNIVERSITY TO THE FIELD

MAY 4, 2022
4-7 PM

Aula Minor - Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas
Largo Angelicum 1, Rome

Why study interreligious dialogue at the university level?
How best can interreligious dialogue be taught and studied?
How can academic reflection support implementation and fostering of dialogue initiatives?

- 4:00-4:10 Welcome address
Sr. Catherine Joseph Droste, Dean of the Faculty of Theology, Angelicum
- 4:10-5:10 Interreligious dialogue training for future leaders
Prof. Gavin D'Costa, University of Bristol
Prof. Adam Afterman, John Paul II Center for Interreligious Dialogue
Imam Yahya Pallavicini, COREIS
- 5:10-6:00 Experiences of leaders from the field
JPII Leaders and alumni from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas share their experiences in applying academic education to practical interreligious dialogue initiatives
- 6:00 Poster session and Reception
Learn about interreligious projects and avail of the opportunity to interact with the JPII Leaders who implement them

Register by April 29: bitly.ws/q8WM

